Test Your Brain and win a copy of ex Senior Constable Paul Horner's first book – Jack Knife

How is your general knowledge? Try and answer the 20 questions and test the knowledge of your colleagues around the mess room table without peeking at the answers printed at the bottom of the page. And if you think you know the answer to the 'Who Am I?' question, email your answer to the Association and go into the draw to win a copy of Jack Knife – the crashing of a policeman.

Jack Knife is the story of ex Senior Constable Paul 'Little Jack' Horner's decade-long journey serving as a member of the NSW Police. It is a book about trust, loyalty and mateship. It deals with real issues that confront police every day, physically and mentally. 'Jack Knife contains a range of operational police stories varying between saving peoples lives to almost losing my own and an array of stories in between. This book has been written to educate, not only serving police officers and their families but the general public. And it is a must read for anyone who has had to deal with mental illness. This book is the truth as to what really goes on behind the frontline of the policing world.'

Members can order a copy of Paul Horner's new book online through Zeus Publications
